

Clearly Aware

Guided by Voices

Okay, you knew that
I was clearly aware
I said, "You know me"
But still you think it's unfair
The day you saw me
You declared me insane
So now forget me
I'm very clearly deranged

Conditions in the way
It won't be getting any better, any better
So run away

Quite aware (Quite aware)
Of the situation
People are the same
So I go
With my photographic brain
Away
Deranged automaton
Unconsciously driving away
A right, to give you moral victory
The price that comes with knowing
Clearly we're too much and growing
