Deflect Project

Guided by Voices

Resting in the Mediterranean, yeah
Sending the tax man on the run, yeah
Displacing a city one by one, yeah
A techbot in a condo being scum, yeah

Deflect/project oh your actions are never circumspect
Defect, product once proud city now wrecked

Planned obsolescence is the goal, yeah
Putting the renters on the dole, yeah
Silicon valley takes it's toll, yeah
On backs of the million you control, yeah

Evil things have come to light
Tasting apples with parasites
All right, all right
