Everywhere Is Miles From Everywhere

Guided by Voices

Everywhere is miles from everywhere
No discernment distance A to Z
No directions to a cup of tea
Everywhere is miles from everywhere

There is fornication, no consent, nor king
Common thoughts make no common laws or sense in anything

In the liquid fire escape you sweat
Every dog comes closer even yet
I will bring you a rabbit you can bet

Everywhere is miles from everywhere
From the kicked up to the final gun
Daily until nowhere left to run
Everywhere is miles from everywhere

There is fornication, no consent, nor king
Common thoughts make no common laws or sense in anything

In the liquid fire escape you sweat
Every dog comes closer even yet
I will bring you a rabbit you can bet
