

Home By Ten

Guided by Voices

You cry without open eyes
You claim that the world's unkind
But most of them have to be home by ten

The truth comes when you tell me lies
Come each time with troubled eyes
But most of them have to be home by ten

And run
The captain is gone
So we have to begin
You just cannot win
And I've got my gun
Point it at this world
So I've got to begin

You down yourself all the time
I hide from the world outside
But most of all we have to be strong again

But don't go when you know your sin
You've got time to enjoy your sin
But most of all we have to be strong again

And run
The captain is gone
So we have to begin
You just cannot win
And I've got my gun
Point it at this world
So I've got to begin
