

Immortals

Guided by Voices

The very second that you got me down, yeah
You're holding me down now
I wanted to go back up
Trust humans down on the range
You wanted to stay back
I wanted to go back home

I guess I've waited for that
I've been through years of wasting
I still think you're crazy
But you've dug your own, yeah

It's a no-good deal fighting for a buyout
I wanted to say that
Now do it alone
Do it at home
Do it anywhere
I just had a name

But I guess I waited for that
I've been through years of wasting
You've had the time of your life
There's a line inside here for you

When she crashes the party
That would be a pity
When everyone is gone
You and I will still be here
