

King 007

Guided by Voices

The moment award
And not received in a haircut
Sounding a rifle
Kicked by a horse

The way that plays
And death milk days
It's worth more now
The nervous laughter, Fitzgerald

Catalogued in the high hills
He's always asleep
Where line is wrong
But there's always another song

To scrape
Into the package

King 007
His number in heaven
Is secret on earth
Alright

King 007
His number in heaven
Is secret on earth
Alright

The best place to be
Show me a walk with your short legs
A fortune to hide out
For all times of course
