

Our Value Of Luxury

Guided by Voices

These men came down from heaven
Come here to tell you something
You stomped on rotting floorboards
Your world's an inaccurate graphic

Our value of luxury
Allows us to believe we are free
Our value of luxury
Allows us to believe we are free

That's okay, we've got airplanes
Silos in mirrored highways
Your earmarked for collision
With frozen opposition

Our value of luxury
It allows us to believe we are free
Our value of luxury
Allows us to believe we are free

Our value of luxury
Allows us to believe we are free
Our value of luxury
Allows us to believe
