It's her again, oh oh
She's a little disturbed again, oh no
And I'm feeling down again, so it goes
Circling 'round like trouble and toil
A princess boiling milk
They thought she was a witch
And when they poured it on her
She didn't melt

And I bear no guilt

It's her again, oh oh
She's a little disturbed again, oh no
And I'm feeling down again, so it goes
Circling 'round like the juggler of the stars
The monster of the moon
It's happening too soon
