

The No Doubters

Guided by Voices

When you find out who's looking
They may rip your heart out
Always one new condition
When you guess the game

It's always the same
The no doubters
Are doers and shouters
It's done
In a concentrated brain
And it's always the same

When you find out who's looking
Do not protest
What hits the spot
And who does not
It's always the same

It's always a long shot
It's always a short shot
But it's always a

No doubter...
