

True is the time when I see you
Blue are the blinds that I see through
Blue
Red are the tail lights in your eyes
Said what I needed, now it's true
Red are the scars running through
You

On this trail of lovers
Never failing with their loving eyes around you
To prove your rage isn't true
They'll return the ashes too

Blue are the windows I see through
Red are the tail lights in your eyes

On this trail of lovers
Never failing with their loving eyes around you
On this trail of lovers
Never failing with their loving eyes around you
To prove your rage isn't true
They'll return the ashes too

No sky to praise to now
The stars have realigned
The island washed away somehow
