

Who Wants to Go Hunting?

Guided by Voices

Explorer wants to peel back every wall
With eyes so he can feel the motion
Walk across the Indian ocean

A bargain blitzer shifting to begin
To lose the land the last land standing
All the vows for freedom posted
"Go now"

All new research
Popular t-shirts

Know the long shot
Oh, any place is on
Any place is right
Point the light
It's the right spot
And if we can agree
It's the place to be
Day or night

The savage rose in swift repose believes
In slinking from its shining hour
Declaration of the trumpet flower

In the tight spots
They're everywhere you know
But if you wanna go
Expedited
Off to another place
If only to escape
Or be found

Who wants to challenge me?
Who wants to go hunting?
