

Anthem

Gungor

I feel, wait in the silence
The promise of sound
I hear, the pulse and the chaos
The gravity of ground

And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
I can feel it like an anthem
Run, spirit, run

I feel, the rush of the river
The breath in the wind

And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
I can feel it like an anthem
Run, spirit, run

And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
I can feel it like an anthem
Run, spirit, run

In the face of war
In the face of death
I will hold the light here within my chest
Will you stand with me
Will you choose to see

Good within the bad
Love within the greed
The divine in you, the divine in me
Maybe we could find some peace
And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
I can feel it like an anthem
Run, spirit, run

And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
I can feel it like an anthem
Run, spirit, run

And my heart starts beating like an anthem
Starts beating like an anthem
Hallelujah like an anthem
Run, spirit, run
