

Light

Gungor

Your eyes, they opened
And love was spoken
The tears came tumbling down

Your heart was broken
The words were spoken
The tears came tumbling down

And the blind gained sight
As we met our light
Oh the joy and fight
The gift of life

Your hands, the creases
Your feet, your breathing
You're mine, you're perfect light

And the blind gained sight
As we met our light
Oh the joy and fight
The gift of life

I can't take my eyes off of you oh my Light
I can't take my eyes off of you
