Wandering

Gungor

I've been wandering through this world
Looking for an anchor to hold me
I've been stumbling through this world
Searching for the thread that might free me

I am looking to you
I am holding on to you

I've been wandering through this world
Looking for an anchor to hold me
I've been stumbling through this world
Searching for the thread that might free me

I am looking to you
I am holding on to you
I am looking to you
I've been holding on to you

I've been wandering through this world
Looking for a love that might free me
