

Beyond Amends

Gus Dapperton

I know those eyes don't attest with Pure devotion so infested
I only woke to see you've rested and grown to weep
How could you leave me restless and broke

Lay this heavy stone my love
You didn't have to grieve like that
I know, I know, my love
I didn't want to leave like that!

I know those lies show no rest when
Pure evoting falls like a necklace
I only hoped to see you've rested and grown to weep
How could you leave me restless and broke

Lay this heavy stone my love
You didn't have to grieve like that
I know, I know, my love
I didn't want to leave like that!
Lay this heavy stone my love
You didn't have to grieve like that
I know, I know, my love
I didn't want to leave like that!
