Gus Dapperton

Back in my arms once again
Praying and hopping for touchdown
You said that you needed a friend
To cover up all the tough spots
Then from the moment we met
What's life in a 10 minute warning
After we make our amends
Let's fall back in love in the fallout shelter

Go ahead and play with my money, my money
Baby, it's so fucking funny to me, I get off
On the thought of you and me in the end
I'd do it over, and over, and over, and over again

Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da shuh boom

It's us
We came too far to still be feeling empty
Nothing I won't do for you, don't tempt me
I'll put it all on the line just to show you
Money I'll blow through, places I'll go to
Just to get back to me and the old you
Just to get back to what we was
Just to get back to what we need to be

Thinkin' back on it, I treated you like top shelf
He and I are not the same, I walk with hot steps
Nothing's funny when the rabbits got the gun
And your head's to the sun tryna figure out who won
Never thought that I would see your face again
I believe in miracles
Repent all for my sins
Call out for your soul

Go ahead and play with my money, my money
Baby, it's so fucking funny to me, I get off
On the thought of you and me in the end
I'd do it over, and over, and over, and over again

I'm in way over my head
Yes girl, we runnin' out of time now
We may be better off dead
To get you his heart but you're mine now
If we had two minutes in here
Tell me what you would do right now
I tell you get back in that bed
Take off your clothes turn the lights down

Go ahead and play with my money, my money
Baby, it's so fucking funny to me, I get off
On the thought of you and me in the end
I'd do it over, and over, and over, and over again

Sha da dop

Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da shuh boom
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da shuh boom
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da shuh boom
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da dop
Sha da shuh boom

Uh, baby, get it together
My love is death row
So we in this shit forever
And again in the next life bounded by blood
'Cause in the end tell me what really matters but love
I'm fucked up if I don't get to feel your kisses and hugs
I might die if I don't get a touch
It's like I can't get you close enough
Don't close me out, baby, open up
I wanna give you the world before the blow it up
