

Midnight Train

Gus Dapperton

On the midnight train
Only love's in my way
Picture-perfect world
Crop me out of the frame
And no, it's not to say
Things will never change
I'm afraid this time
It'd take an act of fate

On the midnight train
Dopamine in my brain
Special K, full tank
Give to sol my thanks
And though it's not your thing
I don't hesitate
I'm afraid this time
It'll be too late

How could I trust myself?
Runnin' right off of the rails
How could I break the spell?
Up this high, the ride prevails

On the midnight train
Fire and ice in my veins
Pretty name, new flame
Pretty out of my lane
And though it don't equate
I am lost by grace
I'm afraid this time
Things will be too grave

How could I trust myself?
Runnin' right off of the rails
How could I break the spell?
Up this high, the ride prevails

(I need you show up)
(I can't slow the ride)
I can't slow up, I need you show up
I can't slow up, I need you show up
I can't slow up, I need you show up
I can't slow the ride

(I can't slow up, I need you show up)
How could I trust myself? (I can't slow up, I need you show up)
(I can't slow up, I need you show up)
Runnin' right off of the rails (I can't slow the ride)
(I can't slow up, I need you show up)
How could I break the spell? (I can't slow up, I need you show up)
(I can't slow up, I need you show up)
Up this high, the ride (I can't slow the ride)
