A H
Say goodbye, lose your friends,
C# E
make them go, don't need them around
A H
Cause it's time, lose your friends,
C# E
make them go, was never supposed to be like this.

A H C#
They were too weak, too prone to break
E
their needs too deep, their skin too thin.

A H
By now you took what was to take
C# E
tear it apart and start again

R

D A E
So go on, if this will make you happier
D A E
It got you this far, did what you had to

A Hmi E

A H
You've wasted every moment
C# E
of your Saturdays and your Sundays.

A H
You're wasted from the boredom,
C# E
was never supposed to be like this

A H C#
Like your father said, just do what was done unto you..
E
..always..

A H C#
In your father's steps you'll do what was done unto you
E
It won't be hard to start again

R

D A E
So go on, if this will make you happier
D A E
It got you this far, did what you had to

(Well you knew this would come)

D

And you're gone now
(And you've left me all alone)

A E

And did it make you happier?
(And you're lost and long gone, don't take it so seriously)

D

It wasn't that hard
(Go on and get going, Im fine on my own)

A E

Did what you had to
(It got you this far, finally got it figured out)

Br:

A

One more itch you son of a bitch

Hmi E

You've been wasting my time...always

A

And now you're half awake You bend till you break

Hmi E

And make the same mistakes...always

R

D A E

So go on, if this will make you happier

D A E

It got you this far, did what you had to

(Well you knew this would come)
