

It Is Just What It Is

Guster

I've been sitting here for hours, watchin' as this city's days unfold

The subway sends vibrations and carries them away

I'm not gonna lie or get hung up about it

I stumble and fall and try to find myself a girl

Some things you can change and then some things, they just resi st

All around the world, the saviors are saving

Movers move along, the soldiers parading to the click

It is just what it is, it is just what it is

I've never had much motion or drank the Kool-Aid potion

Or dreamed of situations to carry me away

I'm not gonna lie, I get strung out about it

I stumble and fall and try to find myself a girl

Some things you can change and then some things, they just pers ist

All around the world, the saviors are saving

Movers move along, the soldiers parading to the click

It is just what it is

Presidents and thieves on thrones and in cages

Shake their fists at God and her persuasion, it's a trick

It is just what it is, it is just what it is

It is just what it is, it is just what it is

It's just what it is, it's just what it is
