

Maybe We're Alright

Guster

Miles and miles go by from this window seat
The lies we tell ourselves just to fall asleep
It's hard to know exactly when it changed
With all the puzzle pieces out of place
Everything that's good will come again
They had their time but now it's over

Bah ba-ba-ba-bah
Maybe we're alright ba-ba-ba-bah
We're just one day older
Surprise, surprise

Chasing fireflies as the sky turned gray
Trapped in mason jars as they flash and fade
The church around the corner has a sign
"The end is near but help is right inside"
Whatever gets you through the night
They had their time but now it's over
You've got to take a photograph over your shoulder

Bah ba-ba-ba-bah
Maybe we're alright ba-ba-ba-bah
We're just one day older
Surprise, surprise
Surprise, surprise
Just close your eyes

Miles and miles go by
Miles and miles go by

Maybe we're alright
Maybe we're alright

Maybe we're alright
Maybe we're alright

Bah ba-ba-ba-bah
Bah ba-ba-ba-bah
Bah ba-ba-ba-bah
Bah ba-ba-ba-bah

We're alright
