

The Human Mulligan

Guttermouth

One by one you're losing your teeth
Just suck it up eyes chin and checks
The futures now but it looks so bleak
That fork in the road didn't taste so sweet

Nowhere, going nowhere
Going

To a dark place where you sit all day
Peek out the window while the kiddies play
Got a good hunch what the others say
Bought a round trip but it goes one way

Nowhere, going nowhere
Going nowhere
Going nowhere, nowhere

Not a soul on earth that you haven't burned
Had a great girl but you lost your turn
If there was a hell maybe than you'd learn
The sign read right but you made a wrong turn

Nowhere, going nowhere
Going

Once upon a time you were so refined
Now it's you your cats and a box of wine
You were the bees knees in your prime
No ticket to the boat now your left behind

Nowhere, going nowhere
Going nowhere
Going nowhere, nowhere

I'm going nowhere
Going nowhere
Since I've got no place to go
I'm going nowhere
Going nowhere
Going nowhere
Nowhere, nowhere

I'm going nowhere
Going nowhere
Since I've got no place to go
I'm going nowhere
Going nowhere
Going nowhere
Nowhere, nowhere
