Chasing Lights

Guy Sebastian

Just ordered food to my room
He asked me how many is eating
I wish that I could say two
As you had stopped me from leaving
And now I ask myself, what's this even for?
Who knew that having a world would leave us broken and bleeding

All of this time I've been chasing lights
You only warning me by your side
Now I lay here alone in this paradise
What I'd give to have you in my bed tonight
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
Give it all to have you in my bed tonight

I know you made sacrifices and it hasn't been easy
If I could lighten the load I would have, baby, believe me
I ask myself again, what's this even for?
I guess a life on the road ain't what we thought that it would be

All of this time I've been chasing lights
You only warning me by your side
Now I lay here alone in this paradise
What I'd give to have you in my bed tonight
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
Give it all to have you in my bed tonight

And I've never felt quite as cold as this
And I've never felt so alone like this Why does it have to be like this?

I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
I'd give it all, I'd give it all
To have you, to have you I'd give it all
I'd give it all
