

I'm Your Man

Guy Sebastian

Love is a gamble
That you gotta take
Cause you never win if you never play
You're looking for someone
Who's not into games
You hope and you pray your luck's gonna change
But if you could only see
What I'm hiding up my sleeve

I've been right over your shoulder
Watching every single hand
I've seen you lose over and over
Same old story same old dance
I've got a pocket full of aces
And I'll play them when I can
Won't leave it up to chance
So when you're ready for a sure thing
Baby I'm your man

We're never sure
To hit or to stay
Cause love is a seventeen either way
We're all addicted
To feeling the rush
The thrill of the chase is never enough
But if you could only see
What I'm hiding up my sleeve

I've been right over your shoulder
Watching every single hand
I've seen you lose over and over
Same old story same old dance
I've got a pocket full of aces
And I'll play them when I can
Won't leave it up to chance
So when you're ready for a sure thing
Baby I'm your man

When all the chips are down
Baby I'm your man
When all the lights burn out
Let me be the one to turn your luck around

I've been right over your shoulder
Watching every hand
I've seen you lose over and over
Same old story same old dance
I've got a pocket full of aces
And I'll play them when I can, won't leave it up to chance
So when you're ready for a sure thing
Baby I'm your man
I'm your man
