

Only Thing Missing

Guy Sebastian

Hold up
This feelin's got me bubbling like a soda
So why you trying to give me cold shoulders
I swear I'm not the same no more
I'm not the type to go and play these games no more

I know I learnt that lesson in my mind, my mind
It's like you keep me guessing by design... I'm

I'm really feeling that bounce
I got the beat again
Got the song that'll get me on my feet again
So are you down
We should meet again
Checking ticks off my list
Now the only thing missing is
You
Yeah all I'm missing is you

Listen
I'm gonna shoot a shot and I ain't missin'
It's time to cash out on all my wishes
I ain't rollin' dice no more
Vegas for the night no more

It's the way you go and bring me back to life, to life
That's the reason why I'm going all in tonight I'm

I'm really feeling that bounce
I got the beat again
Got the song that'll get me on my feet again
So are you down
We should meet again
Checking ticks off my list
Now the only thing missing is
You
Yeah all I'm missing is you

You're all I do this for
So walk through my open door
I want you here with me
You're the air I breathe
Got me incomplete
And all I'm missing is you

Oh, I'm really feeling that bounce
I got the beat again
Got the song that'll get me on my feet again
Are you down
We should meet again
Checking ticks off my list
Now the only thing missing is
You
Yeah all I'm missing is you

You
All I'm missing is you...
