Your flesh is insignificant...
Still you drag yourself here on bloody stumps I recreate you am putate you
You defile my womb hahahahaha
However weak it still appealing
Sights to send senses reeling
To see your nipples stripped from you
Tossed into my human stew

That's why you came to me...

You were begging for love surgery

It's the way - the way its got to be

It's called love surgery

Punks and priest, yeah they're all in there

A beggars bludgeoned with their shinwear

Bubbling cauldron choked with ichor

Well I must think of something sicker

Anticipate the nipple rape
Dish is almost done
The child has died, he must be fried
You humans are the same inside
Now the cauldron starts to boil I can feel my anus heave
The undergarment start to soil
And now I know its time to leave
When a demi-God blows bloody sperm
It does not stop, it starts to worm
And you shall achieve a maggot spunge-hole effect
Ohhh Scary
