

Rise Again

GWAR

Rise!
Rise!
Rise!
Rise!

Rise again
Souls of men condemned
To die in the forests and the fields
Fly once more
The blood stained banner of war
Time inflames more wounds than it heals

Rise!
Again!
The dead will rise again
Rise again

From beyond
Graven image of bronze
Marches now an army of the dead
From broken tombs
Blood cursed soil, statues loom
Turn to face the souls in life they led
Feed the hate
That tore apart the states
The Stars and Bars above them once again

Rise!
Again!
The dead will rise
Again!

Now the war, lost before
It's all starting over
Earth gets scorched, tiki torch
Reignites the horror
Yank and Reb, both are dead
There's just Left and Right now
Civil's gone, line's been drawn in
This new War you fight now

Rise!
Again!
The dead will
Rise again!
Lost again
The cause you won't let end
The past will rise
Again
