Gym Class Heroes

Pillmatic breezing these down I'm poundin honey grounds
I'm pillmatic the oxycontin got my stomach rottin
Pillmatic I swear to God I'm not an addict
But I'm still at it, dang nabbit I'm pillmatic

Thinking back on when it all started
I found pink hearts in mommy's little pocket book
And took em
Poppin when she wasn't looking I guess it runs in the family
I'm liable to eat any pill you randomly hand me
Save the greenery
I'm looking for them labels reading may cause drowsiness be careful when operating machinery beautiful pharmaceuticals residue in my cuticles sniffin them with a suitable wishin they made em chewable catch me in the source with five pills next to my name like fuck five mics I want five vic fame if killing pain is the name of the game then I'm your number one draft pick dash quick to the closest medicine cabinet kill the whole bottle never played the role model position I'm just livin so take 2 of these and call me in the morning ima take 4 and finish this 40 'cause lifes boring

Pillmatic breezing these down I'm poundin honey grounds
I'm pillmatic the oxycontin got my stomach rottin
Pillmatic I swear to God I'm not an addict
But I'm still at it, dang nabbit I'm pillmatic

Keep the hydro unless its got codone behind it Never have to roam far from home to find it Writin fake scripts like my doctor signed it Till I spelled his last name wrong
This ain't a song for the kids like the last album Put em to bed go ahead and turn the valuum up
A couple meds to ease the pain of the papercuts
The doctor says slow down maybe later butts 40 milligrams, a 40 and I'm faded
This world is crazy so I stay medicated Percocet, ativan, and colonapin
When my social lights are out
They turn them on again
I need em till I'm bored again Oxycontin on juice on gin Equals projectile wild style burner on a porcelain

Pillmatic breezing these down I'm poundin honey grounds
I'm pillmatic the oxycontin got my stomach rottin
Pillmatic I swear to God I'm not an addict
But I'm still at it, dang nabbit I'm pillmatic
