

I Wish I Did

Gyroscope

Truly drunk enough to talk to you,
We sat until 4AM, flicking through an atlas.
Comparing destinations repeating conversations.

For you I'll stay awake, awake
For this I'll stay awake, awake

Pins and needles in my arm that you're leaning on.
Comfort? There is none, at least we're touching.
Drinking to every sunset, we were sleeping through every sunrise.

For you I'll stay awake, awake
For this I'll stay awake, awake

Drinking to every sunset, we were sleeping through every sunrise.
For you I'll stay awake, awake
For this I'll stay awake, awake

For you I'll stay awake
For this I'll stay awake
For this I'll stay for
You I'll stay awake for you
I'll stay awake for this I'll stay...
