I'm really gonna pack in this new job i do
It's gonna be the death of me
I went to a party of some girl that i knew
At least the alcohol was free

With all the family around
We couldn't find a common ground
And so we left with what we found
When we first came, so

Where you been, where you been, where'd you go?
Leavin' me alone and I'm feelin' low
I'm supposed to be the one you want
I'm supposed to be the one you want

I'm supposed to be the one you want

I know that I don't earn 100 points in bed
But will you love me anyway?
It's just there's so much goin on in my head
That I don't know what to say... say... say

Your car rolled away out of sight
You cannot leave without a fight
Ok you lose so we were right
When we first came, so

Where you been,where you been, where'd you go?
Leavin' me alone and I'm feelin' low
I'm supposed to be the one you want
I'm supposed to be the one you want

I say, where you been, where you been, where'd you go?
Leavin me alone and i'm feelin low
I'm supposed to be the one you want
I'm supposed to be the one you want

Hey!
