all I really want, from you is just the answer to what you're always mad at me for, mad at me for when I separate our years, it doubles all the fears all I really want is just a handshake and a greeting, that's all I want from you all I really want is just a thankyou and a smile, from anyone but you

I'll make it nice and easy I'll break it down one time for you.. for you when all your colours turn to grey, grey-yay-yay-yay then all my colours are just grey..

all I really want is just a handshake and a greeting,
anyone but you

Silently silent...

all I really want is just a handshake and a greeting,

all I really want is just a handshake and a greeting,
