

Mortgage Crisis Intro

(həd) p.e.

[Spoken:]

...gone up 500%. People can't afford to do that.

Southern California, for instance, the last 90 days, there was 23,000

foreclosures.

The game's over because now the people do not have the income;
the companies are exporting all their main jobs to foreign coun tries

so if we don't have an income...