

Bad Time for Love

H.E.A.T

In the shadow of a neon light
Where nothing is wrong or right
Somebody better chase the night away
Getting hotter going to cross the line
Wheels turned by the hands of time
Boiling blood in the veins of fire and ice

Baby I know, you have to let it go
You have to let it show, to turn it all around
You know that it's a

Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
You give a little, just holding on to your pantomime
Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
Maybe it's a bad time for love, baby
Bad time for love

Hearts beating in a night of haze
Just pieces of a wicked game
Somebody better start and roll the dice tonight
Feel the venom of a fiery bite
Burning on like kryptonite
Plunge down in the chasm in the ice

Maybe you'll see, you're in a tragedy
The playground of the street
A shelter from the dark
You know that it's a

Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
You give a little, just holding on to your pantomime
Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
Maybe it's a bad time for love
Maybe it's a bad time for love

You know that it's a
Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
You give a little, just holding on to your pantomime
Bad time for love, the feeling that you just had enough
Maybe it's a bad time for love, baby
Bad time for love

Bad time for love, just had enough
Bad time for love, you just had enough
Bad bad time
Bad bad time
Just holding on to your pantomime
Bad time for love
