H.E.A.T

A bitter taste is what you've got
A bit of hate is what you've fought
Now you're above just everyone
You are the sun we spin around

Hear a million fallen angels
Crashing down

We can't be understood
'Cause we live as we learn
From Hollywood, Hollywood
We can't be understood
What is bad? What is good?
In Hollywood, Hollywood
Hollywood
Well, a little fame is what you've got
And a bit of pain is what you've caused
But underneath your success

Is there a soul that's in distress?

So hear a million fallen angels
Crashing down

We can't be understood
'Cause we live as we learn
From Hollywood, Hollywood
We can't be understood
What is bad? What is good?
In Hollywood, Hollywood

We can't be understood
'Cause we live as we learn
From Hollywood, Hollywood
We can't be understood
What is bad? What is good?
In Hollywood, Hollywood
Hollywood, Hollywood
