I Know What It Takes

H.E.A.T

I hate to admit it but I just cant take no more it’s not to late for changes girl you cant close the door you’ve got to know, i’m not a fool cause I’ve been down that road before look at me now, never give up and don’t back down baby I know what it takes got one chance to make it right baby I know what it’s like holding back your heart won’t make it right yeah I know you’ll regret it gotta try to set love aside cause your fate is at stake here girl you have to dare the tide you know it’s up to you no matter what you do on the run (cant you see it)

and if you dare to take a chance i’ll be there, yeah i’ll be there
