

Tearing Down The Walls

H.E.A.T

Sometimes it is easy
Sometimes too much
Sometimes you're addicted
But you can't feel the rush, no

Sometimes it's a free ride
You're the toast of a town
Sometimes it's a headshot
On a merry-go-round

Now the lights are on, sing this song
No more walls between us

We are one
And we're tearing down the walls again
Tearing down the walls again
We are one
We will never, ever break or bend
We're tearing down the walls

Sometimes you're a free bird
High in the sky
Sometimes it's a shady world
And all you do is cry

Shut up, get up
'Cause you're an entertainer
And the world is your stage
So sing them your song

'Cause it's all for one, one for all
No more walls between us

We are one
And we're tearing down the walls again
Tearing down the walls again
We are one
We will never, ever break or bend
We're tearing down the walls again

We're tearing down the walls again
We're tearing down the walls again
Tearing down the walls again

We are one
And we're tearing down the walls again
Tearing down the walls again
We are one
We will never, ever break or bend
We're tearing down the walls again

We're tearing down the walls again
