

We Rule

H.E.A.T

I see what you want
But I am not your provider
I know what you mean
Inside of that burning innocence

I look in your eyes
You're smiling with expectation
You want me to lie
A runaway's hopeless promises

In another place
At another time you and I could be

Tonight we rule together
This time is ours forever
This place, this space, will fade away
But memories survive

The moment has come
But disappears with the headlights
There's some other town
Where someone else is waiting

I look down the road
And your reflection's in the rear-view mirror
I wanted to lie
I wanted to take you with me

In another place
At another time you and I could be

Tonight we rule together
This time is ours forever
This place, this space, will fade away
But memories survive, yeah

In another place
At another time you and I could be

But tonight we rule together
This time is ours forever
Yeah! Tonight we rule together
This time is ours forever
This place, this space, will fade away
But memories survive
