

Will You Be

H.E.A.T

Falling, I am falling
I am laying awake and I'm staring again
Running, I am running
In my dreams I can't shake all those feelings away

Would you let me know
Would you let it show
Would you let me go away now
I am numb, can't you see?
It's a race that I can't seem to win

Will you be
My sanity, my entity
Keeping it real
Will you be
My everything, my enemy endlessly

Searching, I am searching
For another way out but I can't stave it off
Holding, I am holding
Our world in my hands, could you please understand

Would you let me know
Would you let it show
Would you let me go away now
I am numb, can't you see?
It's a race that I can't seem to win

Will you be
My sanity, my entity
Keeping it real
Will you be
My everything, my enemy endlessly
