Could've Been

H.E.R.

Please, allow me to show you something
Somebody give me, yeah

Somebody give me, uh
Somebody tell me the answers
Me and you, isn't the answer, uh
Me and you isn't
Maybe I'm tellin' myself that
But there ain't nothing that'll change that
What good would it be, if I knew how you felt about me? (yeah)

It could've been right but I was wrong
Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
Part of me that cared just know it's gone
And I know, that I can't, get caught up

We could've been and we tried to pretend
Every now and again
We don't dream about, don't think about what
We could've been, though I'm holding again
'Cause I know in the end
You dream about, I think about what
We could've been, we could've been, yeah
We could've, damn

Remember?
Remember the night in Miami
First time you put your arms around me
I'm up reminiscin' (ooh yeah)
Thinking 'bout you isn't helping
Thinking 'bout you doesn't tell me
What good it would do, if I decide to face the truth

It could've been right but I was wrong
Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
You only hit me up when she's not home
And that's why, I can't, get caught up

We could've been and we tried to pretend
Every now and again
We don't dream about, don't think about what
We could've been, though I'm holding again
'Cause I know in the end
You dream about, I think about what
We could've been, we could've been
We could've, we could've been
Oh we could've been, we could've been

Yeah, we could've been
Woah, ooh
What, ooh ohh

Ay
What we could've been
What we should've been
If I wasn't, if I wasn't-
With somebody, if you gotta hide it what's the point of trying?

I ain't just your friend, no, what's the point of lying?
Tryna sell a story ain't nobody buyin'
Look me in my eyes, don't that feel nice?
Why should it end? Baby I could've been
I could've been him, more than your friend
Just say where and when, where to make a trip
Baby make a wish, be the one I'm with Should've been a-, should've, could've, would have been, ay
Yeah I would have been (damn)
Yeah I would have been (yeah)

Damn, damn (could've been)
Yeah, we could've been (oh no)
