

I Can Have It All

H.E.R.

Yeah, I know you're tired, baby
Yeah, I know you're so tired
And help has arrived, baby
Look up in the sky
Know you wanna fly
Know you're tryin' your hardest to get right
And I can see it in your eyes
I can see it in 'em

We The Best Music
'Cause I can have it all
I can have it, I can have it
I can have it all
I can have it, I can have it
Another one
And I can have it all
I can have it, I can have it
I can have it all
I can have it, I can have it
DJ Khaled

Yeah, knew I was special from a young age
Knew I would take some shit to my grave
Hope that the problems that I became to some niggas I done slayed
Don't catch up to me some day
But karma my bitch and she workin' for me
One time for the niggas who still adore me
'Cause it's some broads out here fuckin' for forty
And I'm just tryna make someone's son fall in love before forty
I been on some world shit
Comin' out the bank with a mortgage deposit
Made myself a promise I'ma win
Never again, broke up, broken hearted

And I'm starin' out the fountain, blue from the balcony
Runnin' a mile or if I was tryna chase a dream
'Cause I can have it all, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it
Ain't got no hate in my blood or no jealousy
Know it's somebody out there just for me
And I can have it, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it

I can feel it in the air
Talk your shit

I know they say, "Money'll make you change"
That's 'cause they can't handle the price of fame
And while you was fantasizin' about chains
I was plottin' on a way to buy my momma house one day
Remember you actin' like you ain't know me
And now you tell niggas that we was homies
That's 'cause they know everybody adore me
I used to get two hunnid for a show and now they can't even afford me
I'm talkin' 'bout shit
Can't hang with these opps 'cause all they do is gossip
They gon' say it happened overnight

I just might take another flight

And I'm starin' out the fountain, blue from the balcony
Runnin' a mile or if I was tryna chase a dream
'Cause I can have it all, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it
Ain't got no hate in my blood or no jealousy
Know it's somebody out there just for me
And I can have it, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it

Who knew it would be worth all of the losses?
Hopped in the Bentley, ain't even worry what the cost is
I know you out there tryna sell your soul for profit
We gotta count all of the blessings 'cause it's God sent Standing on the edge right now
I said I'm standing on the edge right now
And if the walls come down
If it all come down, if it come down

From the balcony, I see the fountain blue
Over the bridge is muddy waters so your dream come true
But I can have it all, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it
From the balcony, I see the fountain blue
Over the bridge is muddy waters so your dream come true
But I can have it all, I can have it
I can have it all, I can have it
