Sometimes

H.E.R.

Sometimes it don't go your way, sometimes you gotta
Sometimes
Sometimes it don't go your way, sometimes, sometimes
You gotta

I had a plan, I had it mapped out
I knew where I was going when I left out
You couldn't tell me that I wouldn't be there on time
I had some guarantees, I had a deadline

But now I know things change for better or worse
You could say that I'm the same but
I adjusted to all the hurt

So many no's, so many yes'es
No one to blame, don't got the answers
I felt the pain, I can attest it
That's just the game and I respect it, yeah

Cause sometimes shit don't go your way, sometimes
And sometimes you gon' have those days, yeah
And sometimes you'll feel out of place
You can't promise me it'll be the same
Cause sometimes change
Sometimes, sometimes change

I had a date, I had a vision
This was the day I was supposed to be living
Instead of worrying 'bout the temporary things
I hate not knowing where it's gonna take me

So many no's, so many yes'es
Oh I was sure, but now I'm guessing
Feel like my faith keep getting tested
Don't need a sign, I need a message

Cause sometimes shit don't go your way, sometimes
And sometimes you gon' have those days, yeah
And sometimes you'll feel out of place
You can't promise me it'll be the same
Cause sometimes change
Sometimes, sometimes change
Sometimes change

Sometimes
Sometimes, yeah

Sometimes shit don't go your way, sometimes (It don't go your way)
And sometimes you gon' have those days, yeah (Have those days)
And sometimes you'll feel out of place (Out of place, yeah)
You can't promise me it'll be the same (Oh, can't promise me)
Cause sometimes change
Sometimes, sometimes change (Sometimes)
Sometimes change
