

Everybody ends up redundant

Trapped inside a cage, but we're not under arrest
Underpaid under strain, suffering from stress
If you gotta pay that rent, dark days over head
Mislead into dept, our way of life under threat
Pull my heart strings on the fret, work rest and invest
Pawns played like chess, try to swallow what I just said
Its gonna be hard to digest when the tide has frozen all Your assets
Don't wanna get caught in that net, better protect your neck

Currency

No escaping the tidal crash of the current
Loosing tons of cash in abundance
Everybody ends up redundant

Everybody ends up redundant

Take morality and invert it, put money over my spirit
Lusting over riches got our mind tangled in digits
Brain washed by three sixes, need another three wishes
Seems a bit suspicious, high life really isn't

Robin Hood mentality we reject the law
Withdraw from the rich to inject the poor
Robin Hood mentality we reject the law
Withdraw from the rich to inject the poor

Giving up true wealth
Paying blood sweat and tears to buy toys off the shelf
Don't even know you've sold your soul
Lost connection with your higher self

Sea, we're currently
Getting sucked away with the current currency
Cause we can't swim against the tide, plutocracy
Ain't no real democracy
Just suits and ties profiting
