Hacktivist

You already know me
Still the same OG but I've been low key
Hated on by most these pricks with
No Ps, no views and weeks screams
No wheels and no keys
No flows, no shows, no fees and no dreams
Mad at me cause I can finally afford to take my family to Sainsbury's
Got a yard with a studio and its all full of tracks
Cause I vocal the beats that slap
All facts when I rap
Put our name on the map with the EP
What, you thought you weren't gonna get album 3?
Listen please, gimme 2 secs let me take a knee
Who do you think influenced half the scene?
Who do you think influenced Dropout Kings
Many more, Astroid boys and Kid Bookies
A generation of young Gs
And a group that said motherfuck the police
Hyperdialect with dope beats
To bump when you stroll through in your hood
And at Download 2014
Who was the band that they told you to go see?
You all better listen up closely
All you pricks that said that we'd flop or turn pop
You all know the reason why J ain't been getting no sleep
So fuck you, All of you
If you don't like me it's nothing new
You all can keep fucking around with me
And I'll just cover another tune

Nowadays everybody wanna talk
Like they got something to say but nothing comes out
When they move their lips just a bunch of gibberish
You motherfuckers act like you Forgot About H

So what do you say to somebody you hate
Or anyone trying to bring trouble your way
Wanna resolve things in a bloodier way then go study the way we came up in the game
One day I was walking by with my iPod on
When I saw a guy give me an awkward eye
Cause he recognised me from borders
When I was out here on the grind
I don't give a fuck we will never die
Hacktivist, Borders multiply
Now it's all the Js
Right up on a humongous stage
Back to back we engaged
Now bounce around till u break a leg then try walk it off
Somebody better call a fucking ambulance
Im going to kill bars and these loud ass mother fucking screams and raws
And when the pigs can't do shit and me an JHURLS turn up at ya gaff
With Adam and Black Cat Bill
With some 9 inch nails in a baseball bat
Out with the old, in with the new
Starting today
Then tomorrow to

Still on this music, this is my future banging out tunes
J olifent
Heavy like a motherfucking elephant
In JHurleys bug with the windows up and the CBD blazing
I manifest daydreams
Sorry J I'm a bit crazy
There's no way that you can save me
It's ok I feel the same my G
Lets go

Nowadays everybody wanna talk
Like they got something to say but nothing comes out
When they move their lips just a bunch of gibberish
