

Hyperdialect

Hactivist

I'm hyper dialectic
Looking at life from a whole new perspective
Pigs talk shit my hearing selective
When I'm on the mic the vibe get aggressive
Me and these goons we don't stand symmetric
Grime kid I came from the cesspit
Been rejected, but I learn quick
Now I merk metal riffs on some next shit
Great Britain's infected
Got everybody gassed up since Brexit
Who elected the elected
Now you wanna chill and watch Netflix
It's about to get grimy and septic
Thought we were just sitting on fences
Me and my soldiers hidden in trenches
Body bags everywhere leave no forensics

See the thing is, politicians, musicians, none of them stand a chance against our hyperdialect

Who elected the elected
A destructive mess gets selected
Hectic time and money invested
We hyperdialect it
It's just like we suspected
We're force fed till we accept it
Politics and music's infected
We hyperdialect it

Nights to days the shadows all that change
Minutes hours days and weeks it's so strange
As time passes into slots it's arranged
They want us all tamed and caged
It's a shipwrecked structure in so many ways
Direct example the police are deranged
City to city the uniforms all they change
Instructed by governments acting out plays
Corrupt management barely balancing
Everything's mapped we're trapped in a maze
We should all gather and overpower them
Back them up in to town halls set ablaze
We'll use fire smoke out the liars
When we all riot then they'll go quiet
We'll bring fire expose every liar
I don't wanna riot but I'm not going quiet

Who elected the elected
A destructive mess gets selected
Hectic time and money invested
We hyperdialect it
It's just like we suspected
We're force fed till we accept it
Politics and music's infected
We hyperdialect it

Lost in mis-translation
Locked and loaded I'm strapped

Fire right back get your nose and your jaw cracked
Fuck, this where we at now
Clocks set in reverse now
Guess we're going right back
All it took to show your true faces
Are you happy now
Stand and watch us drown
As you swim around in mis-translation
Are you happy now
This is all we got, fill the barrel let it off, boom

Who elected the elected
A destructive mess gets selected
Hectic time and money invested
We hyperdialect it
It's just like we suspected
We're force fed til we accept it
Politics and music's infected
We hyperdialect it
