

Not Alone

Hacktivist

We just wanna be heard
We're addicted to feeling hurt
If you're ever feeling low then just know that you're not alone
You're not alone

He told himself that he was gonna be the biggest rapper in the world
Now look how it all unfurled
Can't look after himself let alone looking after two kids, he's got a boy and a girl
At night he finds himself at the top floor when he's feeling low and he's ready to hurl
We stay up late with our eyes closed hoping that were going to a place where the gates are pearl
I write a letter in cold blood flowing on drugs as I exit leave it on the shelf
Hypersensitive and overwhelmed
Losing my mind and mates as well
On an instrumental my mental health increases
Life hasn't been gentle
Got thrown in at the deep end
And I'm still here just picking up pieces
Real deep shit
Every time I pick up the mic I'm so far from speechless
Feeling alive when I'm on stage right by the speakers
And I don't want money or fame 'cause I need my freedom
Haters will hate but in this game you will need them
I don't wanna be big no more I think I better stop succeeding

Every time that I hear the guitar I get this feeling
There's a voice in my head but I can get near it
And it's driving me crazy in to a ditch I'm music careering

We just wanna be heard
We're addicted to feeling hurt
If you're ever feeling low then just know that you're not alone
You're not alone

Yeah my demons haunting me
And I'm gritting my teeth
Put on a smile for the world today
But I can hardly breathe
Drowned by this pain and terror
Bottom of the bottle
Taking shots like mayweather
I'm on top, so I say, won't stop 'til my brains ok think I need a lobotomy
Ain't no-one stopping me
I got eyes in the back of my head like someone's watching me
Paranoid, trapped in a void by opioids
I just wanna be heard
So I keep that pen on the pad 'til my hand hurt
Shout these words 'til my throat burn
We've all got a chance to play God

We just wanna be heard
We're addicted to feeling hurt
If you're ever feeling low then just know that you're not alone
You're not alone

I feel numb
Feeling paralysed
Life seems only worth living online

If you're ever feeling low then just know that your not alone

We just wanna be heard
I'm addicted to feeling hurt
If you're ever feeling low then just know that your not alone
You're not alone
