When computers go down
Remember this land is borrowed
Choppers in the sky
Bring pain and sorrow
Pollution leaves a bitter taste
That's hard for us to swallow
We're hoping for a better day
But will we see tomorrow?

When computers go down
Believe that this land is borrowed
Bombers in the sky
Bring pain and sorrow
Corruption leaves a bitter taste
That's hard for us to swallow
I'm hoping for a better day
But will we see tomorrow?

When the network gets ghosted
You'll forget the words that were posted
Hosted on servers burned out
Now the cloud, has stopped floating
Your beloved device is becoming a brick
Just chips with a plastic coating
I'm filled with sorrow - We've killed tomorrow
But I'm programmed to keep hoping...
...Hoping our generation escapes atomic war
And babies born into radiation
Hoping they don't keep building
Racist walls to divide our nations
I hope there's still enough love in the world
To heal every heart that's broken
I hope we stop caring about stocks and shares
And start living more open...

I WILL NOT BOW DOWN
We will never bow down, we will never bow down
(x2)

When satellites fall from the sky
We'll realize that time stops for no man
Now is the time - Open up your third eye
Let's get that reliant mind-block reprogrammed
I WILL NOT BOW DOWN TO NO MAN
MY MIND IS MINE TO REPROGRAM

Lemme check my insta - oooh
Better check my twitter too
Haven't selfied in days
People must think I am melting away
Life online is the best
Everyone can find my flex
I cannot wait for whats next
Yes just plug me into the net!

When computers go down
Pull your head from out of the cloud

A virus infiltrates your tower
Crash ya servers are out
We're drawing mother earth's power
Heading for meteor showers
Minutes feel like hours
Whole forest landscapes devoured
Your screen freezes and shatters
Smoke and mirrors leaders are cowards
For the deceased we leave flowers
Another disaster will happen
In the meantime there's too much distraction
We stand we firm won't move a fraction
Got hard drive don't need expansion
When computers go down
Then its time for action!

I WILL NOT BOW DOWN
We will never bow down, we will never bow down
