

Deprived Of Soul

Hacride

We're buried under man's hand, we've been dugged up by our ancestors.

Unaware of the dephts of the human psyche.

We fall bad, we don't feel our roots anymore.

Nature hears us and we seem indifferent.

This resonance inside of our person calls us.

The horror of human nature stops us believing.

Nothing is impossible

We are all monsters or we are all deaf faced to hate

Destroy our world vision.

Explain this truth this first experience.

Vision

We have no control over ourself

We have lost our mind

Stay humble in front the unknown

Destroy our world vision.

Explain this truth this first experiance.
