

Red Oak Tree

Hacride

One more round is what you show,
One more bound is what you really know when you're down till the morning comes around...
One more beer is what you seek,
One more shot is what you really need when you're down till the morning comes around...

Hear my desperate call for forgiveness,
I'm not different from them...
We all bleed red,
Like a red oak tree...

Autumn forest in black and white,
A dark shadow above the sea,
Confront your fears into nothingness...
Getting some love is what you seek,
One more fuck is what you really need,
When you're down till the morning comes around

Hear my desperate call for forgiveness,
I'm not different from them...
We all bleed red,
Like a red oak tree...

Bear the cross and spread the lies,
Kill your god or stand the cries!
Bear the cross and spread the lies,
Kill your god or stand the cries!

Hear my desperate call for forgiveness,
I'm not different from you...
We all bleed red,
Like a red oak tree...
