

Heaven

Haddaway

Heaven
A picture hanging only by the blind
Lonely deep
Far from you, one time's only time
Working night and day
For a piece of prayer

Something's missing in my heart
Today's the day we have to part
And I sit alone in our little home
What is going on?

My castle built with every stone that love could find
Sitting he
He waits for signs of fashion, he's so blind
Sitting night and day, should he say a prayer?

Something's missing in my heart
Today's the day we have to part
And I sit alone in our little home
What is going on?

And I'll miss you
We always knew the love
We fly above heaven

Something's missing in my heart
Today's the day we have to part
And I sit alone in our little home
What is going on?
And I sit alone in our little home
What is going on?
