Drift Away

HAERTS

Woke up early in the morning
Just like any other day
When you told me nothing good will get away

Now I always had the feeling
That there was a bigger plan
But you're slipping through my fingers like sand

You drift away from me
And there's nothing I, there's nothing I can do
You take away from me
You take everything I ever thought I knew

Maybe in Love there are no angels
Maybe there are no magic spells
Just as I'm afraid of heaven I know you're afraid of hell

I don't know who I'd be without you
I don't know how I'd stay alive
But I know no-one ever loved you more than I

You drift away from me
And there's nothing I, there's nothing I can do
You take away from me
You take everything I ever thought I knew

You drift away from me
And there's nothing I, there's nothing I can do
You take away from me
You take everything I ever thought I knew
You take everything I ever thought I knew
You take everything I ever thought I knew
