

No Shame

HAERTS

Now that it's over
You're loosing the light
Just for a moment
From the shadows untied

You rise from the wreckage
From the hell that you know
Soon it will be over
The end of the show

Maybe you were just too bright to see
Cause you were more than you could ever be
You were never meant to be the same
There's no shame in it, there's no shame

Now that it's over
You're losing the light
Just for a moment
From your shadows untied

Said you wanna make them happy
Wonder how you could be good
Thought nobody ever loved you
Just because you never could

Put the white dress on again
Waiting for the happy end
You'll be waiting, you'll be waiting
I won't ask you if it's real
You're all you should ever be
There's no shame in it, there's no shame
